

Grace Ariana (17) started this hospital ministry with four other volunteers. The medical community is appreciating the role of God's love, humor and the human touch in the healing process. She learns how to be a professional and specialist in the field of child caregiving and play therapy.

