

Jordan - 4 years old. Hot oil from the stove fell on his legs, chest & left arm. He had to be still for several days for the healing process to start. You always have to put the child's needs above your own. "It's not a show you're putting on, it's a relationship – you become a friend"

Emma - 5 years old - got bite by a poisonous spider & because of that she lost movement in both of her legs. She comes to the hospital periodically as she needs assistance for treatment. Emma didn't want for Grace to leave her bedside even a second.
