

Happiness-therapy & special gifts give the children moments of joy & relief from suffering and pain

Pedrito: Has an extremely rare disease. Doctor's diagnosed it as an incurable illness. The fingers of his hands are growing together and some doctors offered to operate free of charge. The hospital helped with everything else that was needed. His dream is to play with a football. He was able to visit the national soccer team.

